THE EXCITEMENT IS BUILDING AT PRAIRIE WOODS! Jennie-O Turkey Store offers capstone gift for the Next Step Capital Campaign.

We were very excited by the news that Jennie-O Turkey Store has made a three year pledge to help us complete our $400,000 Next Step Capital Campaign.

Mike Tolbert, President of Jennie-O Turkey Store, offered the following comment regarding their contribution in honor of Jennie-O founder, Earl B. Olson: "We are pleased to support the Prairie Woods Environmental Learning Center. Earl left a tremendous legacy to this area and naming the multi-purpose addition after Earl B. Olson is a great honor for Earl, the Olson family and Jennie-O Turkey Store. The PWELC is a tremendous asset to Kandiyohi County, and as an agriculturally-based company, we also support the PWELC's mission to promote environmental stewardship."

WHAT'S BEST FOR YOUR KIDS. . .

What if you could do something for your kids that would make them healthier, better problem-solvers, more motivated to learn, more self-confident, have a longer attention span, and even get higher test scores?

You can.

Did we mention that it's free. . . and fun?

Do this: Send your kids outside to play for at least an hour every day. Clinically proven to be best for your kids.

Outside to play, every day.

Notes from the Executive Director

by Dave Pederson, Executive Director

“THE ONLY CONSTANT IS CHANGE”

In the past several months we have been reminded that the only constant is change.

In the last Warbler we said good bye to good friend and trustee, Wilt Croonquist. In this edition of the newsletter we observe the passing of Earl B. Olson, a great friend of Wilt's and a great friend and benefactor of Prairie Woods. This week, I learned of the passing of my Aunt Arline, a wonderful woman who exuded grace, strength of character and love for her family until she passed away quickly without warning at age 88. Arline was born on a farm just a mile south of where I am sitting, but light years away in terms of changes that have occurred to our land and our culture.

Experiencing the death of loved ones and prominent community leaders leads us to consider our own mortality. The logical question to ask is, “How much time might we have, and how can we make the best use of that time?” Through the example of these people who lived well we are stirred to rededicate ourselves to work, love and play that has deep and lasting meaning.

Just as we are moved to be better by the reminder that our time is limited, we are also inspired by new life. Little Henry, whose arrival we reported in the last Warbler, now makes regular appearances at work, toted in by parents Anne and Jeff. Henry and my own children personify for me that our work to promote environmental literacy and stewardship is not just an interesting and enjoyable exercise, but is, in fact, profoundly important.

As you read about our progress and plans in this edition of the Warbler, I hope that you will share in the excitement of our accomplishments and be moved to join us in our work to get kids connected to and caring for our environment. Time will pass today, as it does everyday. At the end of the day we hope that you rest well knowing that you have worked to make the world a better place. Thank you for reading this issue of the Warbler and for all that you do to support the work of Prairie Woods Environmental Learning Center.

Dave

Please Consider Prairie Woods. . . IN YOUR ESTATE AND GIVING PLANS.

EARL B. OLSON, FRIEND & PHILANTHROPIST PASSES AWAY AT AGE 91

Prairie Woods lost a great friend with the passing of Earl B. Olson. Mr. Olson's life achievements were more than impressive--but perhaps the most impressive thing about Earl was his great interest in others and his willingness to help.

Most recently, Earl seeded our Next Step Capital Campaign by offering a $100,000 matching gift challenge which resulted in a successful $400,000 fundraising effort. As a result of Mr. Olson's efforts we will celebrate the dedication of the Earl B. Olson Addition in September 2007. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the many friends and family members of Earl B. Olson.

WEST CENTRAL AG SALES GROUP CONTRIBUTES FOR SCHOLARSHIPS

Prairie Woods received a $1000 grant from the West Central Ag Sales Association. The funds will be used to provide student scholarships to attend agriculture education programs at PWELC. In 2006, West Central Ag Sales Association gave a total of $14,200 in grants and scholarships in the region. The group uses the proceeds of their annual Willmar Ag Show to further agricultural education in West Central Minnesota. Prairie Woods was included in their community grant program.

DO YOU KNOW OF A GROUP OR ORGANIZATION THAT WOULD LIKE TO HEAR A PRESENTATION ON PRAIRIEWOODS? GIVE US A CALL.

KPC DONATES SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS

Kandiyohi Power Cooperative has provided a donation of $1000 toward scholarships to PWELC programs. The scholarships are available for students from within Kandiyohi County. Groups that request scholarships typically receive assistance of one or two dollars per student for the entire group to make their PWELC visit more feasible. Scholarship dollars are always in demand. Thank you, KPC, for helping meet the need!

The Norcross Foundation contributed $3000 to purchase a FuelMeister biodiesel processor, so we can make our own biodiesel fuel. Stay tuned for an article in the next Warbler.

Giving Opportunities

- ◆ We need gifts or loans of American Indian clothing, equipment, artifacts, and artwork for an indoor exhibit. Credit will be given. Call Doug Mossberg: 354-5522.
- ◆ Could you donate a large cottonwood log, 10 to 20 feet long and 20-30 inches in diameter, for demonstrating the process of building a dug-out canoe? Call Doug Mossberg: 354-5522.
- ◆ Sponsorships for groups to attend Prairie Woods programs, from $1 to $20 per student.
- ◆ Gifts to the Sustainability Endowment, any amount.
- ◆ Diesel car or truck in good condition, to use as a program vehicle.

BUTTERFLY GARDEN

Thanks to Deb Schmitzerle and members of the Danielson family, visitors to the farmsite can enjoy a walk through a lovely butterfly and bird garden. Deb and family spent over 300 hours on the project, digging in over 926 donated plants. Many of the plants were obtained through the Minnesota Green Program sponsored by the Minnesota State Horticultural Society. Other contributors to the project included New London Concrete, ASI Ponds, and Home Depot.

Plan to visit the garden, complete with a trickling stream, this summer.

Volunteer Opportunities

- ◆ Re-enact historical dramas, spending time with kids in 1888, or research local history for Time Travel programs.
- ◆ Build & paint notice boards and signs for special events.
- ◆ Host and help at special events.
- ◆ Assist with newsletters and mailings.
- ◆ Help with prairie restoration and maintenance.

ARCHAEOLOGY DAY ON MAY 5

Fighting in the U.S.-Dakota War of 1862 lasted just six weeks. In the aftermath, however, hundreds of Dakota men were arrested and jailed--many were sentenced to death. Meanwhile, 1600 Dakota women, children, and elderly were detained at Fort Snelling. They were held until 1864.

This tragic episode in Minnesota history has been intensively researched by Corinne Monjeau-Marz, who will speak at Prairie Woods' Archaeology Day on May 5. Monjeau-Marz has written a new book titled The Dakota Indian Internment at Fort Snelling, 1862-1864.

Join us for a day of fascinating history at Prairie Woods' Archaeology Day on May 5, 2007, from 12 pm to 4 pm. In addition to the speaker, the day will include artifact exhibits, living history activities, and tours of American Indian history sites.

INTERGENERATIONAL DIALOGUE, SPRING 2007

In conjunction with other spring events meeting needs for awareness and action, and recognizing knowledge we can gain from history, here is one more opportunity to make a difference in our community...

Join us for an old-fashioned 'Community Picnic' to connect, play, and discuss how together we can contribute to a greener tomorrow. The event starts with everyone stepping back in time to the 1880s at the log cabin homestead of Anders Danielson. Try on the life of a pioneer and compare it to that of present day. Then we'll gather in the barn for a picnic dinner and an intergenerational dialogue about how a peek at the past can help us create a brighter and greener future.

Reservations required. 354-5894

Who: All generations

Where: the Barn at PWELC

THE LATEST AND STRAIGHTEST ON GLOBAL WARMING

Doesn't it seem like climate change has been all the talk lately? To keep your end of the conversation up-to-date, check out these quotes from a recent report (February 2007) by the world's most widely-accepted fact-finding group.

Quotes from

the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change's
Climate Change 2007: The Physical Science Basis
 Summary for Policymakers

"Global atmospheric concentrations of carbon dioxide. . . now far exceed pre-industrial values determined from ice cores spanning many thousands of years."

"The primary source of the increased. . . carbon dioxide since the pre-industrial period results from fossil fuel use"

"Warming of the climate system is unequivocal, as is now evident from observations of increases in global average air and ocean temperatures, widespread melting of snow and ice, and rising global average sea level."

"The understanding of anthropogenic [human-caused] warming and cooling influences on climate has improved, leading to very high confidence that the globally averaged net effect of human activities since 1750 has been one of warming."

"In this Summary for Policymakers the following levels of confidence have been used to express expert judgments on the correctness of the underlying science: very high confidence at least a 9 out of 10 chance of being correct."

The complete Summary is available at:
<http://www.ipcc.ch/SPM2feb07.pdf>

FAQS ABOUT THE IPCC

Q: What is the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change?

The IPCC has been around almost 20 years, founded by the World Meteorological Organization and the United Nations Environment Program as concerns grew that human activity was altering the Earth's climate. The panel's job is to assess accepted scientific research and to make clear reports to governments and citizens. The IPCC does not make policy.

Q: Are humans making this happen?

The IPCC report of "a very high confidence" is the highest certainty they could give.

Q: What do they use as evidence?

The IPCC's job is to compile "peer-reviewed" science. "Peer-reviewed" means that other scientists have taken a look at the research and accepted it as sound.

Along with recorded weather data from the past few centuries, scientists also gather much older information from ice cores and sediment cores. Deep ice has covered the land for thousands of years in places like Antarctica. The ice shows seasonal layers similar to a tree's rings, which can be counted backward like a timeline. The ice holds pollen, dust, air bubbles, and lots of other information about Earth's history.

Talk of the Town. . .

CLIMATE CHANGE DIALOGUES

Intergenerational dialogues are a great way to bring the community together to learn, converse, and take action. If your church or community organization is interested in learning more about climate change and discussing it as a group, call Prairie Woods to set up a facilitated dialogue.

"We Already Miss Winter. . ."

SKI TRAIL NEWS

If you missed skiing at Prairie Woods this year, you missed a real treat. Although our winter was too short, we did enjoy excellent skiing thanks to the work of Michael Meyer and two "new" pieces of grooming equipment. The photo below shows the ASV Track Truck made available to Prairie Woods by the Little Crow Area Snowmobile Trail Association and our new G2 Tidd Tech grooming rig. With seven miles of trail, excellent equipment, and staff who are avid skiers and finicky trail groomers, we are already looking forward to next year. Thanks to the Little Crow Area Trail Association, and to the Kemp, Reese and Forstrom families for granting permission for the trail to cross their property. Funds for trail grooming and maintenance are made available by a Minnesota DNR trail grant.

WELCOME, RYAN BLOCK!

We are pleased to have Ryan Block join the Prairie Woods staff to coordinate youth sporting programs. Ryan, a recent graduate of U of M Crookston as a non-traditional student, brings a wealth of experience, skill and enthusiasm to this new position. Ryan will also assist with environmental education and challenge course programs. Contact Ryan if you have ideas or questions about sportsmens programs and shooting range activities at Prairie Woods.

Ryan's current projects include the development of a 3D archery course, youth camps and upgrades to the shooting range.

Challenge Course: Team-Building

by Deb Anderson

Could your group, team, class, office, school, church, or organization use a boost?

PWELC's teambuilding programs are fun and unique ways to motivate, educate, engage, entertain, and inspire.

Teambuilding events are used to:

- ◆ Get to know each other better
- ◆ Build consensus and collaborate
- ◆ Instill respect and self esteem
- ◆ Develop and practice communication skills
- ◆ Motivate & Inspire
- ◆ Unite your group
- ◆ Celebrate success
- ◆ Network
- ◆ Have Fun!

The best times to use teambuilding:

- ◆ Beginning of the year kick-off
- ◆ End of the year celebration or wrap-up
- ◆ Opening or closing for meetings or events
- ◆ Incentive for celebrating success
- ◆ Staff development or training
- ◆ Retreats
- ◆ Stand-alone events

These experiences can be custom-created for your group using combinations of Team Initiatives, Challenge Course and High Events. This will definitely be a unique experience with a great impact!

Call Deb to reserve your experience today! 320-354-5894

NICE THINGS DONE FOR PRAIRIE WOODS. . . by people like you

- ◆ Paul Reller installed a beautiful railing at the log cabin.
- ◆ The Kandiyohi County crew cleared storm damage, selectively cut down trees, and removed old fences on campus.
- ◆ Morgan & Pat Nederheiser donated a canoe with rowing frame.
- ◆ Joel Schmidt worked on eradicating sumac on prairie remnants.
- ◆ Joe's Tree Service took down a tree for a discounted cost.
- ◆ Allison and Luke Geiger of Buffalo Fish Fine Art volunteered professional marketing skills.
- ◆ Edith Jacobson donated a coffee maker.

Time Travel Update

by TeriWermerskirchen

Student pioneers have now experienced all seasons with the Pioneer/Time Travel Program at PWELC. Groups of students were out in November and February this year, making good use of the wood stove (thanks again, Bernice!) and the cozy log cabin. Thanks to the unseasonably warm weather there were no blinding blizzards like those our pioneer forefathers had to deal with. The students instead enjoyed taking a break from present day technology, and stepping back to a simpler time.

Parents, are you looking for a new idea for a birthday party? Bring the kids out to the pioneer cabin to dress up like pioneers, make a pioneer craft and play some period games.

Calling all Senior Citizens, retirees and folks that have an interest in local history, drama or just like having a good time....The Time Travel Program needs you to help us portray for our youth what it was like to live here in days gone by. Here is your opportunity to share what life was like before video games and cell phones. Have fun showing children how to churn butter,

grind coffee beans,
make toys and do
chores as they did
in times past.
Perhaps you could tell stories, show them how to knit or share some other skill?

The Pioneer/Time Travel Program is dependant on donations for our props and costumes. Do you have something in your attic that could be used in this educational program? We could use rug beaters, wash tubs, coffee bean grinder, two handled saw, butter churn, clothing for all sizes that could represent pioneer costumes (long skirts, blouses, or bonnets for girls; long sleeved shirts or caps for boys). What a great way for your family history items to live on!

Sporting Clays at the Range

Women's Sporting Clays Shoot (15 years and up)

More and more women are enjoying shooting sports. Whether you have shot before or not, this class is a noncompetitive way to try something new or work on skills. We provide instruction for all levels, firearms, shells, and targets. (You may bring your own shotgun.) Instruction includes safe gun handling, shooting technique, and responsible enjoyment of shooting sports. We will also laugh a lot and have a great time with games.

Range will be open at the following times. Pick the date that works for you.

- ♦ June 12, 14, 15, 16: Tues, Thurs, & Fri 5-7 pm; Sat 9-11 am
- ♦ July 24, 26, 27, 28, Tues, Thurs, & Fri 5-7 pm; Sat 9-11 am
- ♦ August 14, 16, 17, 18, Tues, Thurs, & Fri 5-7 pm; Sat 9-11 am

Each round (25 shots) is $18 for members and $20 for non-members.

Pre-registration is required, for each date separately.
